

Roving Griz Award

The Roving Griz Award recognizes the commitment of staff and administrators to UM's Quality of Work life Initiative, which has the mission of creating and maintaining a work environment that allows faculty and staff to achieve the highest levels of satisfaction. The award rotates periodically from one department to another, with the last winners deciding where the Roving Griz goes next.

April 1998	Dining Services
May 1998	Printing and Graphic Services
June 1998	Wellness
August 1998	Grounds and Labor
October 1998	Vehicle Repair Center and Transportation Services
November 1998	Telecommunication Services
February 1999	Custodial Department
April 1999	Law School
October 1999	Registrar's Office
December 1999	Computing and Information Services
April 2000	Human Resource Services
December 2000	Mansfield Library
May 2001	School of Pharmacy
November 2001	Office of Research & Development
April 2002	MT Coop Wildlife Research Unit
November 2002	Mailroom Services
December 2003	Alumni
September 2004	Athletic Department
March 2005	Financial Aid
February 2006	American Indian Student Service Program
March 2007	Educational Opportunity Program
October 2007	Counseling and Psychological Services, Curry Health Center
May 2008	Residence Life