2. Providing false information to the University or to members of the University community acting in the performance of their official duties.

15. Malicious intimidation or harassment of another. When a student, with the intent to terrify, intimidate, threaten, or harass (1) causes bodily injury to another, (2) causes reasonable apprehension of bodily injury in another, (3) damages, destroys, or defaces any property of another or any public property, or (4) makes repeated, persistent and/or severe communications, including telephone, digital, or electronic communications, that are unwelcome to the receiver.

21. Retaliation against a person for filing a complaint and/or acts of intimidation directed towards the person to drop a complaint, including involvement in third-party retaliation or intimidation.

22. Violation of the terms of any disciplinary sanction imposed in accordance with the Student Conduct Code;

Whereas, The University of Montana Discrimination, Harassment, Stalking, and Retaliation policy clearly defines sexual misconduct

1. Sexual Misconduct includes sexual assault, inducing incapacitation for sexual purposes, and sexual exploitation. [2]

2. Sexual Assault means an actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person’s consent. Sexual assault includes, but is not limited to:
   a. Involvement in any sexual contact when the victim is unable to consent.
   b. Intentional and unwelcome touching of, or coercing, forcing, or attempting to coerce or force another to touch a person’s intimate parts (defined as genital area, groin, inner thigh, buttocks, or breast).
   c. Sexual intercourse without consent, including acts commonly referred to as “rape.”
      i. Consent is informed, freely given, and mutual. If coercion, intimidation, threats, or physical force are used there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired so that such person cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent; this includes impairment or incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption, or being asleep or unconscious. There is no consent when there is force, expressed or implied, or use of duress or deception upon the victim. Silence does not necessarily constitute consent. Past consent to sexual activities does not imply ongoing future consent. Whether an individual has taken advantage of a position of influence over an alleged victim may be a factor in determining consent.
      ii. Inducing incapacitation for sexual purposes includes using drugs, alcohol, or other means with the intent to affect or having an actual effect on the ability of an individual to consent or refuse to consent (as “consent” is defined in this policy) to sexual contact.

3. Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for anyone’s advantage or benefit other than the person being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the preceding sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of behavior that could rise to the level of sexual exploitation include:
   a. Prostituting another person;
   b. Non-consensual visual (e.g., video, photograph) or audio-recording of sexual activity;
   c. Non-consensual distribution of photos, other images, or information of an individual’s sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, with the intent to or having the effect of embarrassing an individual who is the subject of such images or information;
   d. Going beyond the bounds of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex);
   e. Engaging in non-consensual voyeurism;
   f. Knowingly transmitting an STI, such as HIV, to another without disclosing your STI status;
   g. Exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances, or inducing another to expose his or her genitals;
   h. Possessing, distributing, viewing or forcing others to view illegal pornography;
4. Relationship Violence is abuse or violence between partners or former partners involving one or more of the following elements:
   a. Battering that causes bodily injury;
   b. Purposely or knowingly causing reasonable apprehension of bodily injury;
   c. Emotional abuse creating apprehension of bodily injury or property damage;
   d. Repeated telephonic, electronic, or other forms of communication -- anonymously or directly -- made with the intent to intimidate, terrify, harass, or threaten;

5. Retaliation is action taken by an accused individual or an action taken by a third party against any person because that person has opposed any practices forbidden under this policy or because that person has filed a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation or proceeding under this policy. This includes action taken against a bystander who intervened to stop or attempt to stop discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct. Retaliation includes intimidating, threatening, coercing, or in any way discriminating against an individual because of the individual's complaint or participation. Action is generally deemed retaliatory if it would deter a reasonable person in the same circumstances from opposing practices prohibited by this policy;

Whereas, The University of Montana is at times cited for failing to adequately respond to reports of sexual assault[1], sexual intercourse without consent[2], aggravated assault[3], intimidation[4], partner or family member assault[5], assault with a weapon[6], violation of order of protection[1][7], all perjury and other falsification in official matters crimes[8], violations of Title IX, and the Montana Human Rights Act[9];

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana further recognize the role of MCA 45-5-501, (1) (a) As used in 45-5-503, the term "without consent" means:
   (i) the victim is compelled to submit by force against the victim or another; or
   (ii) subject to subsections (1)(b) and (1)(c), the victim is incapable of consent because the victim is:
      (A) mentally disordered or incapacitated;
      (B) physically helpless;
      (C) overcome by deception, coercion, or surprise;
      (D) less than 16 years old;
      (E) incarcerated in an adult or juvenile correctional, detention, or treatment facility or is on probation or parole and the perpetrator is an employee, contractor, or volunteer of the supervising authority and has supervisory or disciplinary authority over the victim, unless the act is part of a lawful search;
      (F) receiving services from a youth care facility, as defined in 52-2-602, and the perpetrator:
         (I) has supervisory or disciplinary authority over the victim or is providing treatment to the victim; and
         (II) is an employee, contractor, or volunteer of the youth care facility; or
      (G) admitted to a mental health facility, as defined in 53-21-102, is admitted to a community-based facility or a residential facility, as those terms are defined in 53-20-102, or is receiving community-based services, as defined in 53-20-102, and the perpetrator:
         (I) has supervisory or disciplinary authority over the victim or is providing treatment to the victim; and
(II) is an employee, contractor, or volunteer of the facility or community-based service;

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana commend the state of Montana for their current definition of sexual intercourse without consent to reflect that Montana is “one of the eight states that defines rape in its broadest reach as sex without the consent of another”.[10]

Whereas, The impact on the campus community and student relations of crimes against persons differs from those not identified in this category,

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana recognize the fundamental rights of due process of law;

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana recognize the fundamental rights of each individual on campus to have access to higher education without fear of retaliation, intimidation, violence, or threats of such actions;

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana recognize that current campus policies fail to mirror with Montana Code Annotated;

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana additionally recognize that Federal Title IX policy functions under a different set of definitions[11] and changes based on guidance of President’s recommendations and appointments[12];

Whereas, The Associated Students of the University of Montana seek to maintain a fluid definition with the Montana Code Annotated to respect the above recognitions.

Whereas, Current Associated Students of the University of Montana House Rules read,

A. Any officer or member of the Senate may be impeached for:

1. breach of duties as stated in the Constitution or Bylaws;
2. failing to attend three regularly scheduled Senate meetings (and/or ASUM committee meetings), per semester, without an excuse approved by the chair (Vice President);
3. missing final budgeting without being excused by the Chair;
4. committing any misdemeanor or felony upon conviction in open court;
5. committing any larceny against the University, ASUM, or any subsidiary thereof;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, That the Associated Students of the University of Montana recognize the danger of allowing individuals to serve as senators, whom have acted in an inchoate or consummated matter against individuals in the student body;

Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, That Article I Section 3 of the Associated Students of the University of Montana House Rules expand impeachable offenses by reading,

A. Any officer or member of the Senate may be impeached for:

1. breach of duties as stated in the Constitution or Bylaws;
2. failing to attend three regularly scheduled Senate meetings (and/or ASUM committee meetings), per semester, without an excuse approved by the chair (Vice President);
3. missing final budgeting without being excused by the Chair;
4. with charging decision, formal admission, upon conviction, entering a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, of any of the following in a court of law;
   i. felony sex offense or third offense of partner or family member assault,
   ii. homicide, assault, aggravated or felony assault, or threat of the same,
   iii. any crime classified as a felony against a person as defined in Montana Code Annotated.
   a. The Senate must be provided any and all available, non-confidential, criminal justice information related to the offense.
   b. All information provided to Senators must also be available to any student who seeks the information through the proper party.
5. upon conviction or guilty plea, or nolo contendere plea of a misdemeanor sex offense or first/second offense partner or family member assault,
6. upon conviction or guilty plea of a felony or misdemeanor defined in the Montana Code Annotated.
7. violating the student code of conduct, or deliberately encouraging that a student violate the code of conduct on their behalf
8. retaliation against a person for filing a complaint and/or acts of intimidation directed towards the person to drop a complaint, including involvement in third-party retaliation or intimidation.
9. committing any larceny against the University, ASUM, or any subsidiary thereof.
