Well-trained Phlebotomists are in demand nationwide. Employment opportunities include: laboratories, blood banks, plasma centers, hospitals, doctor’s offices, and independent clinics just to name a few. Now you, too, can be part of the medical profession. Learning to draw blood is not as hard as you may think, and there is NO DEGREE, CERTIFICATION, or OTHER COURSEWORK NEEDED to register for this training.

Course Provider:
This course is provided by Countrywide Phlebotomy (PO Box 3321, Idaho Falls, ID 83401) in partnership with the Bitterroot College UM. Individuals with specific course content questions should contact Countrywide Phlebotomy at (208) 589-0132 or learn2drawblood@gmail.com

Course Location:
Bitterroot College Science Lab, Bitterroot College UM, 274 Old Corvallis Road, Hamilton

Course Days and Times:
- 5pm-9pm, Friday, October 24, 2014 (15 minute break at 7:00pm)
- 9am-4:30pm, Saturday, October 25, 2014 (15 minute break at 10:30am; lunch break from noon-1:30pm)

Course Fee & Application:
- Full course payment of $265 and completed application are due by Friday, October 10, 2014 (payment submission instructions can be found on application page)
- Per Countrywide Phlebotomy policy, no refunds are provided after Friday, October 10, 2014

Course Overview:
Students will be trained in both theory and technique of phlebotomy. You will learn the basic blood draw methods, which include: Vacutainer, butterfly draws, and finger sticks. All students will be required to volunteer their arms and fingers for training purposes. However, if you would like to bring volunteers to draw from, you may do so at 10:30am and 2:30pm on the second day of class. Bringing a volunteer is encouraged as the more practice you have the more comfortable and successful you will be. Other areas of study include: basic medical terms, universal precautions, professionalism, and patient’s rights.

Certification:
- Each student is required to attend both course sessions and must complete the skills exam and written exam with at least 90% accuracy to receive his/her Certification of Completion

Policies:
- For your own safety, please refrain from any alcohol or illegal substance intake within 24 hours prior to and during this class
- Countrywide Phlebotomy does NOT discriminate against race, religion, gender, or medical history. However, we may not always be equipped to handle all medical conditions that may apply. Please notify us of ALL your medical conditions prior to this class.
