Job Opportunities

-Videographer/Photographer Intern; Part-time
The videographer/photographer intern will work with the marketing team to produce media related projects throughout the year. The successful candidate will have solid skills in video production and editing and the talent to shoot photography and video that is both professional and compelling. Applicants should provide a portfolio, however, we will consider all levels of experience as long as the individual demonstrates a strong willingness to work hard and collaborate with the rest of the marketing team.

-Marketing Assistant Intern; Part-time
A multi-tasker at heart, the marketing assistant intern will assist in a broad range of projects within the marketing department. Tasks may range from website updates, social media, event planning, email marketing, signage, print management, data entry, research, and reporting. There will also be opportunities for individuals to be involved in the strategic development of new marketing campaigns. This is a great position for someone who may not have a specific skill-set, but is looking to build their experience in the marketing world.

Both positions have the opportunity to become full-time positions during the months of May to September. Please visit the Brett RV & Marine table for more information on these positions. We would be happy to answer any of your questions.

Advanced Technology Group
www.atginfo.com

At ATG, we work in industries that run lean, are highly competitive and undergo continuous, disruptive change. To companies in our world, effectively managing complex revenue and customer interaction processes is the definition of running a successful business.
We are seasoned practitioners who understand the intricacies and complexities of customer and revenue management in companies large and small. We also understand the environment our clients operate in — one complicated by evolving technologies, changing competition and a critical sense of urgency.
Because of that, we take a flexible approach that identifies client needs and quickly puts the right resources in the right places to address those needs.
The result is an environment that tightly aligns people, process, and technology to ensure responsiveness to the needs of the business, a kind of synchronicity that helps clients avoid misses, increase customer satisfaction, sell add-on services and ultimately, improve customer loyalty.

Aerie Backcountry Medicine
www.aeriemedicine.com

After 20 years in business with over 10,000 graduates, Aerie is unique in the wilderness medicine training world: small enough to focus on individual students and large enough to be involved in all levels of the outdoor industry and its training needs. All Aerie courses rely on effective, realistic and challenging scenarios.
Working with a select staff primarily based in Missoula, Montana, we provide courses around the world to get you ready for an outdoor or emergency medicine based career! Want to be a river, fishing, or ski guide? Want to work on an ambulance or for a fire department? Our courses are the stepping stones to get you closer to your dream job! Come take a class with us!
The ASUM Off-Campus Renter Center provides a variety of services to UM students that rent off-campus. Our Neighborhood Ambassador program is dedicated to improving the quality of life within the neighborhoods that surround UM’s campus. The program employs 10 students who work as liaisons between the student renters and permanent residents living in the University District. The Renter Center also assists students with the rental process, empowers students to assert their rights, and advocates for student renter rights policy.

Our mission is to replace petroleum-based chemicals with fully sustainable, zero carbon specialty chemicals. We believe a renewable economy has arrived. Our part in this new economy is to create a more efficient, sustainable supply of specialty chemicals.

Innovation: Living in an era of limited resources requires innovative solutions. We foster forward thinking and agility in our team to create the most dynamic and cutting edge processes and products.

Natural Processes: We are committed to non-GMO processes. We believe the solution to modern challenges lies in biological and chemical processes that have already been tested by mother nature.

Sustainability: We believe that there is no waste, only wasted resources. Through our processes, infrastructure and everyday actions we are committed to being zero waste, carbon neutral and low impact.

Blue Sky Stewardship
www.blueskystewardship.org

Blue Sky Stewardship’s mission is to cultivate our community’s relationship with food through education, localization, and urban farming. We envision a Missoula that is ecologically, economically, and socially just - a place where people and environment thrive as one. As an open source company, we act locally and think globally, basing our projects in the Garden City while sharing our findings freely via the web with the general public.

We currently have three programs—Learn, Unite, and Grow—and two projects going per program, including a school on the food system for teenagers, our FreeSource Library where we publish all our company materials (Learn), our Produce Peddlers cargo bike food distribution network, an appropriate technology manufacturing incubator (Unite), an aquaponics greenhouse, and a several hundred fruit- and nut-tree nursery destined for neighborhood food production called Missoula Forest Gardens.

Chipotle Mexican Grill
Denver, CO

One of the many reasons why Chipotle is unlike other fast food companies is the fact that nearly all of the leaders are promoted from our crew.

Many restaurant companies hire “professional” managers to run their restaurants and almost never look to their crews for new leaders. But at Chipotle, most of our general managers were promoted from our crews and because our company is growing, there’s plenty of opportunity.

Countless people who came simply looking for a job now find themselves leading dozens, or even thousands of people while enjoying a career that is totally fulfilling, fun, and financially rewarding beyond anything they thought possible. It’s pretty simple: If you work hard, you’ll get noticed and before you know it, you’ll be on a roll.

The Good Food Store
www.goodfoodstore.com

The Good Food Store has been serving Missoula for almost 45 years with the simple goal of providing the community with quality bulk foods and supporting local food producers. The store features one of the largest bulk departments in the Northwest with more than 800 different items. “Locally Grown” is still a priority to the GFS produce department, which has been consistently voted Missoula’s favorite. The meat department, where customers select form a large selection of sustainably-harvested seafood and naturally-raised meats, was awarded organic certification in 2004 by the Montana Department of Agriculture. Artisan bread and cheese options abound at the Good Food Store, a delicious complement to a hand-picked selection of fine wines and craft beers. Customers can enjoy breakfast, lunch and dinner in the all-natural deli, which features large self-service salad, antipasto and hot bars, an array of house-prepared salads, sandwiches and entrées, plus smoothies and organic espresso drinks at the beverage bar. Cooking classes are regularly scheduled in the GFS demonstration kitchen and classroom, as are free educational lectures by local nutrition and health care professionals. Visit www.goodfoodstore to learn more about the store and employment opportunities.

Since 1775, the Marines have served our nation with distinction, producing some of our Nation’s finest leaders. To be a Marine Officer is to challenge one-self (mentally and physically). It is a path that few consider, and even fewer have the courage to take. It leads to a place where being exceptional is not just encouraged, it’s an absolute requirement. In order to lead Marines in the most elite military force in the world, you must complete one of the most intense training programs in existence, Officer Candidates Course. It is only then that you will earn the right to stand as a leader of Marines. To be a Marine Officer is to possess a high degree of integrity, commitment and desire to Lead. Our program provides the student a challenge during college to earn a selection, with no obligation until voluntarily accepting a Commission after attaining a degree. At that time you would have the opportunity to enter the Marine Corps as a Second Lieutenant (regardless of major). This program is independent in nature (no uniforms in school), with paid summer training between your Spring and Fall semesters and tuition assistance available. Guaranteed positions for Aviation, Reserves, Ground or Law, you decide which path to pursue. For more info, please contact us at 509-353-2953, www.marines.com/officer or www.facebook.com/MarineOfficerSpokane. We look forward to meeting you!

Army Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) is an elective curriculum you take along with your required college classes. It gives you the tools, training, and experience that will help you succeed in any competitive environment. In addition to premier leadership training, Army ROTC can pay for your college tuition. Because Army ROTC is an elective, you can participate during your freshman and sophomore years without any obligation to join the Army. You will have a normal college experience like everyone else on campus. When you graduate, just like at the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), you will be commissioned as an officer in the Army specializing in any of 16 challenging career fields. However, unlike West Point, an Army ROTC commission gives you the opportunity to serve either on Active Duty, the US Army Reserves, or National Guard.
