

MOLLI Annual Membership Form

Did you know MOLLI membership matters?

Initially founded by a grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UM (MOLLI) is a lifelong learning program for adult learners +50. MOLLI's goal is to create an accessible and innovative learning environment so that active older adults from all backgrounds and levels of education may pursue learning. MOLLI builds on the rich resources of The University of Montana to offer its members an array of educational and social opportunities. MOLLI membership is a vital part of helping to ensure MOLLI remains successful, continues to grow, and is sustainable for years to come.

Join MOLLI today and your membership is valid July 1st through June 30th the following year!

The benefits of membership include:

- Special member only events, such as Behind the Scenes at the Symphony
- 10% discount on textbooks/art supplies for MOLLI courses at the Bookstore at UM
- Access to the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library at UM during MOLLI terms
- Special "MOLLI only" parking permits during MOLLI terms
- Volunteer opportunities
- The satisfaction of supporting MOLLI in its mission to promote lifelong learning and personal growth for adults +50
- Opportunities to create social networks of engaged peers
- Need-based financial assistance availability to participate in MOLLI courses
- Engaging in lifelong learning activities to help increase brain health and activity.

Our Mission:

To promote lifelong learning and personal growth for adults +50. Older adults are a valuable resource for society, and through the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UM, we will speak to their continuing intellectual needs.
