

The Western Montana Spiritual Development Council,
UM Center for Ethics and Lutheran Campus Ministries present

A Faith-Full Response to Global Climate Change

Evening Event Format

Introduction to Series Speaker

Presentation

Charge to the audience:

Theological Implications & questions to start discussions.

Small group discussions at tables, raising concerns and questions in response

Feedback, questions & discussion with Speaker

Tuesday evenings, 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

South Ballroom, University Center, UM Campus

Please see reverse for evening event schedule and speakers.

Please join us for all the lectures of the series, and for the special Saturday workshop on November 10th.

Events are free to attend, and all are welcome.

Lutheran Campus Ministries

www.montanalcmm.org

The Center for Ethics

www.umt.edu/ethics

Western Montana Spiritual Development Council

www.aspiritrunstthroughit.org

Supported by donations from University Congregational Church

A Faith-Full Response to Global Climate Change

- Sept. 18 Is Climate Change for Real?
Can We Trust the Science?
Professor Faith Anne Heinsch
UM College of Forestry Climatologist
Respondent: Rev. Aprille Jordan, Immanuel Lutheran Church
- Sept. 25 Responding to Climate Change:
What Does Justice Require?
Professor Dane Scott
UM Center for Ethics
Respondent: TBA
- Oct. 9 The Rhetoric of Climate Change:
How Do We Talk About It?
Professor Steve Schwarze
UM Communications Department
Respondent: TBA
- Oct. 23 Beyond Stewardship:
Toward a Theology That Reconnects and Empowers Us
Rev. John Lund
Lutheran Campus Ministry
Respondent: TBA
- Nov. 6 Climate Change as a Spiritual Crisis / Call to a Spiritual Life
Professor Albert Borgmann
UM Regents Professor of Philosophy
Respondent: Rev. Steve Oreskovich, Holy Spirit Episcopal Church

Saturday morning workshop, Nov. 10

“Faith-Full” Advocacy for All Creation:

Effective Approaches for Individuals and Faith Communities

Workshop Leader: Jessie Dye, EarthMinistry of Seattle

Holy Family/John XXIII • 1475 Eaton Street, Missoula

FEE: $10 individual, $15 couples, $5 living lightly.