“Globalization is the spread of people, ideas, capital, products, services, and diseases across borders. Internationalization is higher education’s response to globalization.”

UM is undergoing a review of activities that contribute to internationalization, defined above. The process is called Internationalization Laboratory.

We invite you to share your interests and experience, as UM employees, with us. Your feedback will help UM expand and improve its internationalization efforts.

Take this 4-minute survey by May 15 you’ll have the chance to win a $200 U-Money gift card!

SURVEY LINK

Your answers will be confidential. No personal information will be connected to your answers or released in any reports. If you have any questions, please contact the iLab Team.

Thank you for your time. Your contribution will make UM a stronger university.

This message was sent by the Office of the Provost on behalf of the Internationalization Lab Task Force to all University of Montana staff, faculty, and administrators.