Questions for Faculty Meetings

Partnerships and Collaboration
1. To what extent do faculty members engage in collaborative research and development cooperation with faculty at institution in other countries?

2. What effect do partnerships have on student international learning on campus?

Faculty Policies and Practices
3. How does the institution promote faculty engagement in internationalization? To what extent does the institution reward or penalize faculty for international activities and internationalization of their courses, especially in the hiring, promotion, and tenure processes? What are the barriers to faculty engagement? To what extent is the institution succeeding in removing them? What is the evidence?

4. To what extent does the institution invite visiting faculty/scholars from abroad? To what extent and how does their presence contribute to institutional internationalization?

Curriculum, Co-curriculum and Learning Outcomes
5. To what extent do academic departments attempt to internationalize majors? To what extent do they promote or impede study abroad for students? What is the evidence? To what extent is study abroad integrated into the academic major, minor, and general education requirements?

6. What opportunities exist in the local environment to enhance internationalization efforts? To what extent has this institution taken advantage of them? To what extent are the co-curricular activities open to and attended by members of the local community?

Student Mobility
7. What issues, if any, surround the recognition of credit for study abroad? How effective are the administrative policies and procedures pertaining to education abroad, with regard to credit transfer?

8. What effect do education abroad students have on the home campus upon their return? Upon curriculum content and classroom practice? To what extent is education abroad integrated with the curriculum on campus?

Administrative Leadership, Structure and Staffing
9. Where does primary responsibility for internationalization lie? What other structures or bodies share responsibility? How effective are these arrangements?

10. What are the communication or coordination lines to ensure community wide awareness, synergy and mutual support?

Overall iLab Question
11. What policies or practices hinder internationalization efforts at this institution?