Study Abroad Country and University Attended:

1. Why do you want to be a study abroad ambassador?

2. Please explain your availability during the upcoming semester (days and times)?

3. Please explain your public speaking skills.

4. We want to share your experience with UM students! You are the ambassadors; tell them everything they need to know! Please provide a brief description of your study abroad experience and email a photo of yourself at the location you studied abroad to GoAbroad@mso.umt.edu to be posted along with your email address on our website.

Study Abroad Ambassadors will be asked to participate in many activities, some are listed below. If you have a special interest in any of these activities, please make note on your application. Upon completion of at least one semester as a study abroad ambassador, you are eligible for a letter of recommendation from Office of International Programs.

- Volunteering in the Office of International Programs and acting as a initial advisor to students with questions about study abroad programs
- Representing UM sponsored study abroad programs at study abroad fairs, OIP study abroad information sessions and other recruiting sessions
- Giving presentations about UM sponsored study abroad programs to classes and student groups on campus
- Assisting Office of International Programs with pre-departure orientation and re-entry workshops
- Providing your contact information for interested applicants who are curious about your study abroad experience
