Prague, Czech Republic

The City

Prague, often called Golden Prague, is a city that doesn't require an introduction. One of the world's most famous cities, it is regarded as the 'Architectural Jewel' of Europe, and some say it is the continent's most beautiful city.

Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, is situated in Central Bohemia on the Vltava River in the heart of Europe. The city is steeped in history and the architecture of Prague reflects this. The city is famous for its architectural gems, which have remained intact for over 600 years despite enduring World War II, and 40 years under communist power.

In addition to its period architecture, Prague boasts gourmet restaurants, numerous museums, boutiques and shopping centers, and a thriving night life.

Prague is also a cultural and artistic epicenter and it attracts tourists, artists, and writers, who come to Golden Prague to witness the city's beauty, and it's numerous events and festivals. Students are also drawn here, because of Charles University and its reputation as one of the region's finest institutions.

Prague truly lives up to its reputation of one of Europe's best cities.
