

Traditional Stand Alone Application World

New Centralized Directory Services World

Each application presents its own user interface and set of account management functions, but all account management functions must be implemented through interchange with The Directory.

GOAL: Complete and consistent implementation of all authentication and password management functions, independent of The Directory details and across all applications.