Calling All Law School Artists

The Jameson Law Library invites law school students, staff, and faculty to submit artwork for the First Annual Law Library Art Show and Artists’ Reception, being held April 8-19, 2019, in conjunction with Earth Law Week and Indian Law Week. Artists are encouraged to submit pieces on the themes:

The Environmental Regulatory Scheme

Together We Rise: Tribal Movements for Protecting the Sacred and Promoting Justice

Artists’ Reception

Tuesday, April 9
5:30 - 7:30 p.m.
Jameson Law Library

Everyone is invited!

All pieces must be delivered to the Jameson Law Library by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 5 for installation on Sunday, April 7. Each item must be accompanied by a completed submission form and waiver, available at the law library circulation desk. Pieces may be picked up beginning April 22.

All pieces will be displayed in the main Law Library reading room. The Law Library is not responsible for damaged, lost or stolen items. (The library is only accessible to law students, staff, and faculty after posted library hours.)

Each piece should be marked with the artist’s name. Pieces will be displayed with the name of the artist and title of the piece.

All genres of artwork will be accepted. Traditional Native American and Alaska Native artwork is especially encouraged. The library has limited space to display oversize items. Small items may be displayed in a display case.
