Not Transferring in Math Credits? You’ll need to take a placement exam!

Before you meet with your advisor, please visit the University of Montana Math Placement webpage (http://www.umt.edu/mathplacement/) to learn more about the placement exam. The website will contain information about the placement exam and a link to the actual testing site, called ALEKS. There are public computers available in the Mansfield Library.

In order to register for the ALEKS exam, you'll need The University of Montana's Course Code: MAHXUXDVMA
