The UPC Data subgroup continued its discussion on how to analyze academic programs. It looked at a model that compared cost to enrollment to consider a quadrant analysis (low enrollment, high cost; low enrollment, low cost; high enrollment, high cost; or high enrollment, low cost).