

UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA
SPRING COMMENCEMENT

SATURDAY, MAY 13, 2023
ADAMS CENTER

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear UM Graduates,

Congratulations! No matter where you are from or the path that led you here, you graduate today poised for greatness.

The University of Montana Class of 2023 has persisted through a global pandemic to graduate so each of you should be particularly proud of your accomplishments. All of us are here today to celebrate you and are honored to participate in this culmination of your many years of hard work and determination.

Thank you for all you have contributed to our campus community during your time here. Each of you has uniquely impacted UM. Know that your tenure at UM need not come to an end once you receive your degree; today marks your transition from UM students to alumni of this great institution. The University of Montana Alumni Association welcomes you with open arms; join them for events around the country to stay connected to UM.

Whether your future holds more education, a new career, volunteer service, and/or the continuation of an existing career, we look forward to seeing all that you will accomplish. No matter where the road ahead may take you, know that your UM Family is cheering for you.

Congratulations on a job well done. Go Griz!

Seth Bodnar, President

DAVIDSON HONORS COLLEGE

Graduates from the Davidson Honors College are wearing the DHC medallion, trimmed in maroon ribbon. This represents their completion of the DHC curriculum and graduation with University Scholar distinction.

FRANKE GLOBAL LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

Students who have successfully completed the 4-year Franke Global Leadership Initiative, gaining an interdisciplinary look at some of society's more pressing issues, are wearing copper, silver, and gold cords.

MILITARY AND VETERAN'S CORDS

Military service members and Veterans who returned to school to further their education are wearing red, white, and blue cords.

FIRST GENERATION STOLE

About forty percent of UM students are the first in their family to attend college. Those graduating today are wearing a white stole to celebrate their achievements.

RAINBOW STOLE AND CORDS

Students wearing rainbow stoles and/or cords are members of our campus LGBTQ+ community. The stoles and cords acknowledge their achievements and contributions to the University.

STOLE OF GRATITUDE

Many of our graduates are wearing the maroon Stole of Gratitude. After the ceremony, the stole is given as a symbol of appreciation from a graduate to a special person who provided support during their college career.

2023 MORNING CEREMONY

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT OF HUMANE LETTERS AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

MANDY SMOKER BROADDUS

Mandy Smoker Broaddus is a citizen of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Reservation in Montana. She has dedicated much of her career to being an education advocate - serving at the school district, tribal college, state education department and non-profit levels. She also worked as the Indian education director for the state of Montana for ten years and currently works around the country for Education Northwest as a Senior Advisor for Native Education and Culturally Responsive Practice. She serves on the National Advisory Council on Indian Education which advises the Department of Education and Department of the Interior.

Smoker Broaddus earned an MFA from the University of Montana in 2002 where she was the recipient of the Richard Hugo Fellowship. She is the author of one collection of poetry and a children's graphic novel, Thunderous. In 2019, she was recognized as an alumna of the year by the University. She was poet laureate for the state of Montana from 2019-2021 and also received a regional Emmy award for her work as a writer/consultant on the PBS documentary Indian Relay.

2023 AFTERNOON CEREMONY

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT OF FINE ARTS AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

JOHN SHAFFNER

One of the most recognized production designers in television, John Shaffner has left an indelible mark on the history of television.

After working in New York and moving to Los Angeles, John worked often in multi-camera sitcom design. Included among the 63-television series he designed are Friends, The Big Bang Theory, Two and a Half Men, Mom, The Drew Carey Show, and Dharma and Greg. John and his partner, Joe Stewart, have designed television specials for numerous artists – from Perry Como and Andy Williams to Celine Dion, Carol Burnett and Willie Nelson. In addition to designing four Primetime Emmy and five Daytime Emmy Awards shows, they designed the American Music Awards, The ESPY Awards, and years of the Jerry Lewis MDA Telethon and the Miss Universe Pageant. His resume of talk show series includes Conan, The Rachael Ray Show, The Ellen DeGeneres Show, The Arsenio Hall Show, and many more.

Shaffner has been nominated for 42 Primetime and Daytime Emmy awards and won six – three for his work with Joe Stewart on the CBS specials The Magic of David Copperfield, two for The Ellen DeGeneres Show, and one for The George Lopez Series. Shaffner was nominated 40 times by the Art Directors Guild, and won four Art Directors Guild Awards for the design of the 2006 Emmy Awards and three times for The Big Bang Theory.

Shaffner served as Chairman and CEO of the Television Academy for four years and as Chairman of the Art Directors Council at the Art Directors Guild. John served for many years as Vice-Chair of THE CENTER, the homeless community and social services center in Hollywood.

A Missoula native and University of Montana graduate, Shaffner was recognized with UM's Odyssey Award in 2002 and the Distinguished Alumni Award in 1992. In 2019, Shaffner and Stewart were awarded with Honorary Doctorate of Fine Art Degrees from Carnegie Mellon University.

PRESIDENT'S OUTSTANDING STUDENT AWARD

The President's Outstanding Student Award honors outstanding graduating students in academic areas and University-recognized organizations. Students are nominated on the basis of academic performance in addition to devotion to the excellence of their departments and The University of Montana.
