Research with Subjects with Intellectual Disabilities: Recruitment and Consent

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2013 | 11:00 AM MDT
TODD BLDG. ROOM 203 | UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

You’re invited to join UM’s Institutional Review Board (IRB) for an on-site webinar presentation followed by a brown bag discussion period about IRB expectations when research involves minors or adults with limited capacity to consent. The webinar presenter will outline guidance in recruiting these populations and clarify who might serve as the appropriate legal representatives based on federal regulations and state law.

Topics to be Covered:

- Recruitment do’s and don’ts
- Assent for minors and adults with limited capacity
- The appropriate legally authorized representative
- Defining “minors”
- When permission from one or both parents is required
- Under-age parents providing consent for themselves and their children

11 AM – 12 PM: Webinar presentation (we’ll log in as a group), Todd 203
12 PM – 1 PM: Group discussion and optional brown bag lunch (bring your own), Todd 203

You may attend one or both parts, but please pre-register so we’ll have enough seats.

Register by email to: irb@umontana.edu. For more information, call 243-6672.

Webinar Speaker:

J. Claire Carbary, JD, CIP
Quorum Review Regulatory Attorney