

Joint Conference of the Montana Section of the American Water Resources Association and the University of Montana Center for Riverine Science

Waters that Cross Divides

September 30 - October 2, 2009

Holiday Inn Parkside – Missoula, Montana

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS!

Abstract topics:

We invite presentations on all aspects of the science and management of Montana's water resources with special emphasis on cooperative water management issues. Suggested topics include:

- ◆ Nonpoint source pollution management
- ◆ Irrigation management
- ◆ Natural stream function
- ◆ Mitigating impacted stream systems
- ◆ Wastewater management and reuse
- ◆ Watershed studies
- ◆ Instream flow studies
- ◆ Fluvial research
- ◆ Surface water/ground water investigations
- ◆ Sediment and channel effects of dam removal
- ◆ Aquatic habitat work
- ◆ Hydrogeologic research
- ◆ Regulatory updates
- ◆ Water quality issues
- ◆ Water quantity Issues
- ◆ Drought and soil moisture studies
- ◆ Climate change models
- ◆ Wetlands restoration
- ◆ Aquatic nuisance species studies
- ◆ Student presentations are encouraged!

Important information:

1. All abstracts are due no later than Tuesday, June 9, 2009
2. You must submit your one-page abstract electronically at: <http://water.montana.edu/awra>
3. Oral presentations are limited to 20 minutes, including questions and answers. Or, you may present a poster at the Thursday evening poster session. Please indicate your preference of either an oral presentation or a poster on the abstract submission site.
4. A half-day field trip will be scheduled for the afternoon of September 30. All conference presentations and posters will be October 1 and 2.

Coming Soon! AGENDA and REGISTRATION information, geology FIELD TRIP details, STUDENT AWARDS, PHOTO CONTEST instructions and MORE!

Save the Dates Now -- September 30 - October 2 -- for the Montana AWRA/UM River Center Conference in Missoula!

Questions? Call 994-1772, email water@montana.edu or visit <http://awra.org/state/montana>.