

CRITICAL INCIDENT RESPONSE TEAM

CHARGE:

The Critical Incident Response Team (CIRT) will identify, assess and respond to serious or potentially serious incidents related to student mental health, physical health or conduct, which, if disregarded, could threaten the health and safety of the student or campus community. The nature of an incident will dictate the type of protocol used to confer with selected University personnel.

EXECUTIVE OFFICER OVERSIGHT:

Teresa Branch, Vice President for Student Affairs

CHAIR:

Charles Couture, Dean of Students

FACULTY:

Christine Fiore, Professor, Psychology

STAFF:

David Bell, Director, Curry Health Center
Ron Brunell, Director, Residence Life
Jim Foley, Executive Vice President
Jim Marks, Director, Disability Services for Students
Jim Lemcke, Director, Public Safety
Ken Welt, Director, Counseling & Psychological Services
David Aronofsky, Campus Attorney (attends as needed)
Director, Affirmative Action (attends as needed)