MOLLI Annual Membership Form

Did you know MOLLI membership matters?

Initially founded by a grant from the Bernard Osher Foundation, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UM (MOLLI) is a lifelong learning program for adult learners ages 50 and over. MOLLI’s goal is to create an accessible and innovative learning environment so that active older adults from all backgrounds and levels of education may pursue learning. MOLLI builds on the rich resources of the University of Montana to offer its members an array of educational and social opportunities. MOLLI membership is a vital part of helping to ensure that the MOLLI program remains successful, continues to grow, and is sustainable for years to come.

Join MOLLI today and your membership is valid July 1st through June 30th the following year!

The benefits of membership include:

- The opportunity to take a broad array of courses with distinguished UM faculty, emeritus faculty, and professionals from the community
- Free MOLLI Special Member Events, such as Behind the Scenes at the Symphony
- 10% discount on textbooks/art supplies for MOLLI courses at the Bookstore at UM
- Access to the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library at the University of Montana
- Special MOLLI-only parking permits during MOLLI terms
- The opportunity to create social networks of engaged peers as well as meet new and interesting people
- Access to need-based financial assistance to participate in MOLLI courses
- Volunteer opportunities

Our Mission:
To promote lifelong learning and personal growth for adults 50+. Older adults are a valuable resource for society, and through the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UM, we will speak to their continuing intellectual needs.
