Director Exercise

Turn in this exercise along with your application, resume and references.

The director is the catalyst for an active programming staff and agenda. The Director is a resource for ideas and concerns for all facets of UM Productions effort. The Director is the link between the ASUM administration and the UM Productions Office.

Part One:
How would you go about creating a cohesive team? Be Specific.
The Director position requires 15 office hours per week. Is this something you can accommodate?

There may also be times when more hours are required in a one-week period (i.e. when show days are involved). Is this something you can accommodate?

How would you spend your time in the office?
How would you keep the momentum going during slow times?

Forming positive, long-term relationships is vital in the entertainment industry. How would you nurture relationships both present and past?

Part Two:
If you could bring any artist/group to Missoula, who would it be?
How much would you pay for this artist/group?
What venue would you bring to them?
When would you plan this show?
How many tickets do you think the show would sell?

Please list any resources that you used to determine your answers above.

Good luck!!
