Up with Montana, boys,
down with the foe,
Good ol’ Grizzlies
out for a victory;
We’ll shoot our backs
’round the foemen’s line;
Hot time is coming now,
oh, brother mine.

Up with Montana, boys,
down with the foe,
Good old Grizzlies
triumph today;
And the squeal of the pig
will float on the air;
From the tummy of
the Grizzly Bear.
Welcome to Family Weekend at the University of Montana!

Many people had a hand in organizing this special weekend in your honor. We want you to enjoy your time with your student, experience all the University of Montana has to offer and get to know other families of UM students.

UM leads the nation in Udall Scholars and has more Rhodes Scholars than any university in the Rocky Mountain West. Our faculty is second to none. Last year, three UM professors were named to an elite list of the world’s most influential minds in science. For the past three years, UM has been ranked among the top 350 universities worldwide.

UM students volunteer 221,832 hours annually to their community, and Missoula is ranked among the top college towns in the U.S. While you are here, we hope you take time to explore this storied University and exceptional town.

We are here to help your students succeed. Please let us know how we can provide you with more information or resources while you are on campus. We want to help make your Family Weekend experience enjoyable. Ask any Family Weekend volunteer for help.

Questions? Call Andrea Lewis, University Relations event coordinator, at 971-322-5402.
FAMILY WEEKEND 2015
Schedule of Events

Friday, Oct. 23, 2015

8 a.m.-6 p.m.: Registration and Hospitality – Enjoy refreshments as you pick up your Family Weekend information packet and find out what’s on tap for the weekend. The packet includes name badges that provide access to Family Weekend events, campus and city maps, a guide to Missoula and various coupons. Grand Foyer, University Center, third floor.

8 a.m.-5 p.m.: Enjoy a Gallery – Get immersed in one of the current art exhibits on campus. Exhibit descriptions and gallery hours are listed on pages 20-21. Don’t miss the docent tours of the Montana Museum of Art and Culture at 12:30 and 3:30 p.m. Friday and 2 p.m. Saturday. Free.

8 a.m.-5 p.m.: Visit a Class – Join a regularly scheduled class and see faculty and students in action. Select a class from the list below, or join your student in one of his or her classes. No advance registration required, but please be aware that there may not be seats available in every class. Free.

Visit a Class

Go to class with your student or join a regularly scheduled class and see faculty and students in action.

American History I
10:10 a.m., Urey Lecture Hall Room 101
Associate Professor Kyle Volk, recipient of 2014 Cox Educational Excellence Award

American History I offers students an introductory survey of U.S. history from Ancient America (pre-1492) through the Civil War era. In mid-October, the class will explore the origins of the U.S. Constitution and the birth of the American empire.

Enjoyment of Music
11:10 a.m.-noon, Music Building Room 105
(enter through Room 104)
Professor Fern Glass

In Enjoyment of Music students develop their music-listening skills. Explore the relationship between musical materials and the expressive qualities of a musical composition or performance. No musical background necessary.
Einstein’s Relativity
12:10-1 p.m., Davidson Honors College Room 118
Associate Professor Nate McCrady, recipient of 2013 UM College of Humanities and Sciences Award for Teaching Across the Curriculum

Einstein’s special theory of relativity is one of the greatest scientific discoveries, yet most people have only a vague notion of what relativity is. In this course, industrious students with a working knowledge of algebra and trigonometry and a modest exposure to calculus will gain insight into the counterintuitive nature of space and time. Einstein’s relativity theory is introduced from a modern, geometrically oriented perspective, using space-time diagrams throughout and emphasizing the deep connection between time and space.

Note: This classroom has very limited space. First come, first served.

Fundamentals of Forensic Science
1:10 p.m., McGill Hall Room 210
Faculty member Gary Kerr, winner of the Missoula Independent’s Reader Choice Award “Best UM Professor”

Gain an appreciation for scientific method as a way to learn about the world. Be introduced to the basics of a wide variety of sciences and explore the breadth of forensic science as practiced in crime labs in the 21st century. Understand the roles of police, forensic scientists, attorneys, expert witnesses and others in the process of a criminal investigation and trial.

Global Tectonics
2:10 p.m., Charles H. Clapp Building Room 304
Associate Professor Rebecca Bendick Kier

This course examines plate tectonics of the Earth and other planets. Students learn methods for observing tectonic processes and phenomena, as well as for developing a theory of the underlying physics. This course studies a wide range of time and spatial scales influenced by tectonics, from earthquakes to the growth of oceans and mountains. Today’s class will include a group discussion of case studies and calculations of the effects of mantle convection and plate forces. What forces are big enough to move plates? Why are tectonic boundaries located where they are? How might they change in time and space?
8 a.m.-5 p.m.: Talk to a Griz Guru – Do you want to talk to someone on campus about services available for your student? Does your student want to participate in particular programs or activities and you want more information? Or, is there something you always wanted to ask or find out about UM? A UM concierge will be available to help you with your questions, personally connect you with student services offices and provide information or guidance about practically any topic. If you have a question, take time to chat with our campus experts! Grand Foyer, University Center, third floor. Free.

8 a.m.-5 p.m.: UM Open Houses – Does your student want to travel the world? Do you want to discover what career resources the University has to offer or see what field or majors fit your student’s personality best? Is your student feeling homesick? Or are you curious about health and wellness? UM staff members are available to answer your questions and provide information about these topics and more. From Career Services to Study Abroad, the Curry Health Center and Residence Life, UM offices are open across campus and ready to welcome UM families. Check out the list of open offices and the corresponding map on pages 15-19. Various locations. Free.

8 a.m.-9 p.m.: Hit the Gym or Swim Laps – Find a group fitness class, run on the track, lift weights or shoot some hoops with your student at the Fitness and Recreation Center. The Grizzly Pool also is free to families. Lap swim hours are 6:15-9 a.m., 10 a.m.-1 p.m., 5-6 p.m. and 7:30-9 p.m. Show your Family Weekend badge to gain entrance to the Fitness and Recreation Center or the Grizzly Pool. Free.

9-10 a.m.: Tour the UM Paleontology Center – Join Collections Manager Kallie Moore on a special guided tour of the UMPC’s exhibits. Don’t miss this opportunity to check out 1.5 billion years of Montana’s fossil history. Meet on the first floor of Charles A. Clapp Building at the T-Rex skull. Free.

11 a.m.-1 p.m.: Lunch at the Food Truck, Food Zoo or Corner Store – The Galloping Griz will be parked on or near the Oval, serving up tasty street tacos, quesadillas and “bombs.” What’s a bomb? You’ll have to visit the food truck to find out! Check the Galloping Griz Facebook page for their exact location, and look for the Family Weekend special on Friday. Looking for a place to sit down? The Corner Store also will offer a Family Weekend special at the Pacific Rim kiosk, or you can find a wide variety of healthy options in the Food Zoo. Dine with your student at the Food Zoo where they can use his or her Bear Bucks flex dollars to buy you lunch for $3.50.
11 a.m.-6 p.m.: Explore at spectrUM Discovery Area – For the young (or young at heart) members of your family, UM’s hands-on science center offers hours of entertaining discovery. The University Center enriches campus life by providing student-focused opportunities, programs, services and space. It provides students from diverse backgrounds with the guidance and resources to define and participate in their own learning and development. Student learning, discovery and engagement are at the core of its mission. The UC offers myriad services including an art gallery, high-tech study lounge, game room, theater, conferencing services, shipping and mail center, bank and ATMs, copy center, hair salon, bookstore, market, food court, and Griz Card Center. It provides an inclusive, clean, well-maintained and environmentally conscious space for the campus and greater community to meet, study and interact.

Veterans Education and Transition Services (VETS) Office
1000 E. Beckwith Ave. / 243-2744
The VETS Office is the liaison for GI Bill education benefits between UM, the Department of Veterans Affairs and the student. The VETS Office provides information, advocacy, community and resources to help veteran students successfully transition from military to student life.
Current exhibits on campus

Montana Museum of Art & Culture, Meloy and Paxon galleries, PAR/TV Center

Gallery hours:
Noon-6 p.m. Friday, noon-3 p.m. Saturday.

MMAC is one of four venues to host this national traveling exhibition of rare works on paper by Richard Diebenkorn, which portray a richly intimate glimpse into the artist’s evolution spanning more than 40 years. The exhibition, curated by Chester Arnold, chair of the Fine Arts Department at College of Marin, courtesy of the Richard Diebenkorn Foundation, features 40 pieces, 38 of which have never before been publicly viewed.

The exhibition includes pencil and ink drawings on paper, collages of torn paper and watercolors, and is supported by two volumes published on the occasion of the exhibition: “Richard Diebenkorn: Abstractions on Paper” and “Richard Diebenkorn: From the Model” published by Kelly’s Cove Press.

“Variations of Unlimited Sequence”
Gallery of Visual Arts, Social Science Building, first floor.

Gallery hours: 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday.

The exhibit combines audio recordings with suspended and layered construction drawings by Billings artist Jodi Lightner.

The works in “Variations of Unlimited Sequence” are a part of an ongoing drawing series by Lightner that examines the patterns and perception of space that develop as people interact within architectural structures. By suspending large-scale drawings from the ceiling, viewers will have the opportunity to move in and around the works, becoming increasingly aware of how they are forced to move through the space. Lightner suggests that the behavior and attitudes created through repetitive patterns of interaction define a particular place.

“Black Lake Ice”
University Center Gallery, UC Room 227

Gallery hours: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday.

Artist Sarah Moore’s exhibition “Black Lake Ice” will feature photographs arranged in a rather unusual format, intended to evoke feelings of loss and memory.
“Lions and Tigers and Bears, Oh My!”
Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library, fourth floor, Archives and Special Collections, Teaching Room.
Hours: 9 a.m.-5 p.m. on Friday
The exhibition features a menagerie of animal-oriented artifacts from the Mike Mansfield papers. Stop by to view a hand-carved wooden bear, a glass tiger, lobsters made out of rope and more.

“Montana: The Sporting Life”
Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library, fourth floor.
Exhibit open during library hours:
7 a.m.-7 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m.-7 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m.-2 a.m. Sunday.
The exhibition features a selection of taxidermy and hunting related items from a variety of archival collections. View photographs, manuscripts and ephemera related to “the sporting life.”

“A book you can sink your teeth into ...”
Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library, Main Lobby.
Exhibit open during library hours:
7 a.m.-7 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m.-7 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m.-2 a.m. Sunday.
In celebration of National Fossil Day, during the month of October the Mansfield Library will be displaying fossil examples from the UM Paleontology Center. The samples are paired with beautiful illustrations from early paleontology reports. See what remains of some of Montana’s ancient residents!

“Once Upon a Time: Stories from Special Collections”
Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library, fourth floor, Theta Rho Room.
Exhibit open during library hours:
7 a.m.-7 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m.-2 a.m. Sunday.
The exhibition features beautiful illustrations and text from a selection of children’s books and stories.

Tamarack Brewing Company: Free pizza cookie per table with entree purchase
231 W. Front St., Missoula, 406-830-3113
Tamarack Brewing Company, located in downtown Missoula, overlooks Caras Park from two floors: a fun, sports-pub environment downstairs, and a casual, low-key dining room upstairs. Tamarack offers game-day specials, a famous Bloody Mary bar on weekends, and of course, great Montana craft beer.

The Notorious P.I.G.: Free fountain drink/iced tea AND a free 6 oz. side with purchase
247 W. Front St., Missoula, 406-926-1344
Using techniques and recipes learned from the world-famous pit masters of St. Louis, The Notorious P.I.G. brings Missoula barbeque as it’s meant to be: cooked every morning. When the food sells out, they shut their doors for the day. Try a classic such as ribs, pulled pork and beef brisket. Or, try something more original such as pastrami, tri-tip or smoked cranberry-cayenne chicken wings.

Sweets Barn Downtown: 10% off
119 S. Higgins Ave., Missoula, 406-493-1116
The Sweets Barn Downtown produces fresh, local and award-winning chocolates, teas and gourmet foods. They also sell bulk candy and gifts. Find chocolate truffles, gourmet fudge, barks, brittles, clusters and 63 varieties of hand-blended tea.

El Cazador: 15% off
101 S. Higgins Ave., Missoula, 406-728-3657
Located in beautiful downtown Missoula, El Cazador takes exceptional pride in using the freshest ingredients to make authentic and traditional Mexican dishes. El Cazador thinks of its customers as part of its family and will make you feel welcome and right at home.

Up with Montana, boys,
down with the foe,

Good ol’ Grizzlies
out for a victory;

We’ll shoot our backs
’round the foemen’s line;

Hot time is coming now,
oh, brother mine.

Up with Montana, boys,
down with the foe,

Good old Grizzlies
triumph today;

And the squeal of the pig
will float on the air;

From the tummy of
the Grizzly Bear.
