III. Description and purpose of the course: General Education courses must be introductory and foundational. They must emphasize breadth, context, and connectedness; and relate course content to students’ future lives: See Preamble: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/gened/GEPreamble_final.htm

This course is designed as a broad survey of major developments in the visual arts of Western Europe and the Americas from the fifteenth century to the present. It is the second part of the introductory art history survey.

IV. Criteria: Briefly explain how this course meets the criteria for the group. See: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/ASCRCx/Adocuments/GE_Criteria5-1-08.htm

1. ART 151 is an art history survey that introduces students to a variety of artists, artistic approaches, and historical periods in Western Europe and the Americas from the fifteenth century to the present.

2. Students learn to develop opinions about works from differing critical perspectives.

3. Students engage in dialogue based on those opinions, citing artists, artistic approaches, and art periods.

4. Students analyze a work of art in terms of its relationship to its historical or cultural period, especially in regards to Western European and American traditions.

5. Students learn the vocabulary associated with art history and the analysis of artwork.

6. Students identify pivotal works by period, date, artist, title and medium

V. Student Learning Goals: Briefly explain how this course will meet the applicable learning goals. See: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/ASCRCx/Adocuments/GE_Criteria5-1-08.htm
The following represent the course objectives of the art history and criticism curriculum:

- Art History: to gain a comprehensive and global view of the development of history and culture; to understand that art is a manifestation of intellectual history; and to study the various methodologies used to gain that knowledge.

- Visual Literacy and Language: to develop knowledge of visual language and the terminology needed for the analysis and discussion of works of art.

- Technical Skills: to learn the range of materials and technical applications employed by artists over time.

- Critical Thinking: to gain knowledge of and competence in critically analyzing visual images, past and present, and express their relevance to society through informed discourse, both verbal and written.

VII. Syllabus: Paste syllabus below or attach and send digital copy with form. The syllabus should clearly describe how the above criteria are satisfied. For assistance on syllabus preparation see:

http://teaching.berkeley.edu/bgd/syllabus.html

Please note: As an instructor of a general education course, you will be expected to provide sample assessment items and corresponding responses to the Assessment Advisory Committee.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course is designed as a broad survey of major developments in the visual arts of Western Europe and the Americas from the fifteenth century to the present. It is the second part of the introductory art history survey.

COURSE FORMAT:
This course is necessarily a “marathon.” We shall study a staggering diversity of art over half a millenium. Most sessions will take place in a traditional lecture format. Open, frank, and fair discussion is welcome and encouraged in the classroom.

STUDENT-LEARNING GOALS IN ART HISTORY:
The following represent the course objectives of the art history and criticism curriculum:

- Art History: to gain a comprehensive and global view of the development of history and culture; to understand that art is a manifestation of intellectual history; and to study the various methodologies used to gain that knowledge.
- Visual Literacy and Language: to develop knowledge of visual language and the terminology needed for the analysis and discussion of works of art.
- Technical Skills: to learn the range of materials and technical applications employed by artists over time.
- Critical Thinking: to gain knowledge of and competence in critically analyzing visual images, past and present, and express their relevance to society through informed discourse, both verbal and written.

POLICIES:
Good performance in art history in general and in this class in particular rests on your ability to grasp hundreds of images representing the creative output of people in society during specific periods of time and the ideas that illuminate their creative process. You will also be expected to stay abreast of the readings and to participate fully in the class.

Students will utilize Blackboard (http://courseware.umt.edu) for the syllabus and other course materials. THE SYLLABUS IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE. PLEASE CHECK BLACKBOARD REGULARLY FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS.
The required textbook for this class is Marilyn Stokstad’s, Art: A Brief History, 3rd ed., Prentice Hall, 2007, vol. II. Website: http://wps.prenhall.com/hss_stokstad_arthistrev_2. You will be reminded regularly of where we are on the syllabus, but please stay abreast of the readings. Good class participation depends on your ability to prepare in advance of the discussion. Give yourself plenty of time to read the assigned text. Read it intelligently and, by all means, bring your questions to class.

ATTENDANCE/ABSENCE POLICY:
Participation is crucial for successful completion of this course. 20 % of your grade is determined by attendance and participation in class discussion. At least 85 % attendance and occasional participation earns a "C" and 95-100 % participation an "A". Participation counts for more of the final grade if it has been exceptionally good or less if exceedingly poor. PLEASE NOTE THAT ONLY PROFESSOR CHACON CAN EXCUSE AN ABSENCE.

You will be responsible for keeping track of your own attendance. You will receive a “Passport” for the first half of the term which will be a record of your attendance. At mideysemer you will receive the Passport for the second half. Each time you come to class you will stamp yourself with a rubber stamp provided for you. PLEASE BE ADVISED NOT TO LOSE THE PASSPORT AS IT IS THE ONLY RECORD OF YOUR PARTICIPATION. LOST PASSPORTS WILL NOT BE REPLACED.

QUIZZES:
Three scheduled quizzes will take place during the semester. All quizzes will have extra credit opportunities. MISSED QUIZZES CANNOT BE MADE UP AND ABSOLUTELY NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL FROM PROFESSOR CHACON.

TERM PROJECT:
A take-home, hands-on project will be assigned during the second half of the course. This project will be due in class on Thursday, April 3, 2008. Absolutely no late work will be accepted without prior approval from Professor Chacón.
