III. Description and purpose of the course:

General Education courses must be introductory and foundational. They must emphasize breadth, context, and connectedness; and relate course content to students’ future lives: See Preamble: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/gened/GEPreamble_final.htm

Jazz III is a dance technique class. It is a studio course that meets each criterion for the Expressive Arts Perspective. Students learn technique in jazz and apply these techniques and processes in the learning of dance phrases and combinations. Students incorporate movement structures through learning dance language and terminology for purposes of conveying meaning through dance. Students in any technique class use the same “Dance Technique Student Requirements” with an accompanying individual syllabus specific to the dance style of that course. All technique students are required to attend dance performances and write a critique that reflects upon and critically assesses the merits of others’ work. These same assessment processes are used in class to reflect upon their own work and the work of peers. The technique class allows students to perceive and articulate the relevance of artistic expression in human experience. Building upon the fundamental skills gained in DAN 107A and 207A: Jazz Dance I & II, this introductory course continues to develop the fundamentals of the art of jazz dance.

IV. Criteria:

Briefly explain how this course meets the criteria for the group. See: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/ASCRCx/Adocuments/GE_Criteria5-1-08.htm

Courses guide students, whether in individual or group settings, to acquire foundational skills to engage in the creative process and/or interpretive performance. Students physically experience dance kinesthetically. The mode of instruction includes attention to the following areas, which lead to technical formation of the dancer and familiarity with the dance language: alignment, centering, balance work; basic locomotion, basic axial movement-flexion, extension, rotation; elevation-techniques, rhythmic awareness; basic positions of the arms and feet; simple turns with and without spotting; flexibility and strengthening exercises; use of breath and vocalization.
Through direct experience (for example, attendance and involvement with live performance, exhibitions, workshops, and readings), students will engage in critical assessment of their own work and the work of others.

Students reflect on and critically assess the merits of their work in three main ways:

1. Students are required to attend three dance concerts during a semester of dance technique. They are encouraged to voluntarily see all available dance performances. The instructor requires a written critique for these performances. Guidelines are distributed prior to the concert. Students must write a critique referring to specific examples, so it is recommended that they take notes either during or after the concerts.

2. Students are required to perform their own original compositions. Professors conduct class discussion where students are held responsible for the critique of their own work and the creations of their peers.

3. A Dance Program critique of the Dance Showcase is held every semester with outside critics invited to share their reflections on the merits of the choreography. Choreographers are required to attend and dancers are highly encouraged to attend. The critique generally lasts two hours and is held the week following the production.

V. Student Learning Goals: Briefly explain how this course will meet the applicable learning goals. See: http://www.umt.edu/facultysenate/ASCRCx/Adocuments/GE_Criteria5-1-08.htm

<th>Using the movement vocabulary learned (alignment, centering, balance work; basic locomotion, basic axial movement-flexion, extension, rotation; elevation-techniques, rhythmic awareness; basic positions of the arms and feet; simple turns with and without spotting; flexibility and strengthening exercises; use of breath and vocalization), students are able to express themselves using the idiom of jazz.</th>

<td>Upon completion of this perspective, students will be able to understand the genres and/or forms that have shaped the medium.</td>
<td>Through attending performances of local companies and national/international professional companies, and through viewing dance works on video/DVD, students will understand and differentiate between different dance genres and the major forms that have shaped the medium of dance.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
Upon completion of this perspective, students will be able to critique the quality of their own work and that of others.

The dance program values critique as part of the learning goals of all dance students. All students who study jazz dance are required to attend concerts and write critiques about the quality of the work they are seeing. In addition, students are involved in class critiques where they critique their own work and the work of their peers. Students also participate in a Formal Critique conducted by a guest critic from the Missoula community.

VII. Syllabus: Paste syllabus below or attach and send digital copy with form. The syllabus should clearly describe how the above criteria are satisfied. For assistance on syllabus preparation see: http://teaching.berkeley.edu/bgd/syllabus.html

Course Description
In this course you will expand on your knowledge of Jazz dance and the various styles of Jazz Dance. You will use the skills learned in class to perform combinations given during class. You are expected to attend every class, work hard, show that you understand the information given, and exhibit improvement over the semester. You will be assessed by your attendance record, critiques, final project, and hard work in class. I am very interested in maintaining a positive atmosphere before, during and after class.

Class Objectives
- Continue to develop knowledge of the various forms of Jazz dance, Luigi, Fosse, Hip Hop, Las Vegas, Broadway, Modern/Jazz
- Learn and execute jazz dance steps from those various forms and perform combinations in class
- Condition, strengthen and stretch the all essential parts of the body needed for dance movement
- Condition, strengthen and stretch the mind to understand the art of dance
- Learn and understand the history of jazz dance and learn to appreciate all forms of dance
- Develop musicality and rhythm
- Develop mental and physical coordination
- Develop individual expression
- Create and perform your own dance piece using the knowledge gained through class experience and group work

Requirements
All students will be required to participate in a final project. The final project is an audition. Each student with create a 45 second to one minute solo for presentation at the end of the semester. This solo must showcase your abilities and execute the various techniques learned from class. We will discuss various audition techniques throughout the semester. A panel of “judges” will be present the last day of class and audition you for the opportunity to perform in a DDC show. You will be assessed on your preparedness on the audition day, your execution of learned choreography, your solo, your attire, how you present yourself in the interview with the panel.

General course requirements state that you must see three dance productions during this semester and write critiques on them. There are many options of shows to see and I will do my best to keep you informed of all shows times and dates. However, it is your responsibility to be aware of performances on and off campus. Papers must be a minimum of three pages, but no longer than five. Papers are due one week after you attend a performance. Every day after that, 1/3 of a grade will be deducted. Be sure to date your papers as I will be checking them as they are turned in. If you see a show on Saturday or Sunday, please turn that paper in the Friday before that next weekend. Papers may be turned in to me at class time, or to my box. Papers may be emailed to me and you are encouraged to do so! Save paper!

There may be a class devoted to watching videos of performances and movies. We will have time for discussion after the viewing. The intent is to expose you to new forms that you may have not seen and to create a forum for discussing the history of jazz dance and the innovators of this exciting form. These classes are required to attend and your participation in discussions is encouraged.

Dress Code Half tops or shorts will no be allowed. No midriffs and no bare legs. Wear tight fitting clothes that I can see your body in so that I may train you properly. Leotards for girls are preferable. Shoes are not mandatory, but recommended. You may wear jazz shoes, but no street shoes are allowed in the studios. Do not wear large jewelry, ie big earrings, loose bracelets, or necklaces.

Teacher Contact Info You may contact me by email at heather@ddcmontana.com. I do not have an office here in the building so this is the best way to reach me.

All Drama/Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the Department of Drama/Dance Handbook. The Handbook is available online at http://www.sfa.umt.edu/drama/index.html.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/Index.cfm/page/1321.

NOTE: You may usher for performances in the PARTV Center by signing up at the Box Office in the Lobby.

Your instructor will require a written critique, quiz, or something else of his or her own choosing. You will need to give specific examples, so take notes either during or after the concerts. As you watch, it will be helpful to think about the following:

1. Which pieces you felt strongly about (i.e., either really liked, disliked, were puzzled by, etc.)
2. On the choreography of each piece;
   a. What is the theme or movement idea?
   b. What is the style of dance and how does it work with the theme?
   c. What is it about the movement or the way the piece progressed that made you react as you did?
3. Your reaction to the performances of the dancers: expression and technique.
4. Your opinion on the theatrical elements: costumes, lighting, sets and sound score. Did they work with the choreography?
   Provide specific examples to back up your opinions!

ATTENDANCE AND GRADE POLICY – DANCE TECHNIQUE

Attendance is important in any field, but vital in the field of dance. Learning to dance requires that your body do it. You won’t gain in flexibility, and strength, or in your ability to pick up movement or generate your own movement by hearing about what happened from a classmate, or reading a book. In other words, there is no way to make up the material you miss.

So, WE EXPECT YOU TO BE IN EVERY CLASS. However, knowing that unpredictable circumstances can arise, we are giving you two absences. You may also make up two classes. You can do this by watching, and writing a one-page observation of another dance class that is either a more advanced level of the style you’re studying or a different style, or by participating in another section of the same level and style of class that you’re taking.

AFTER YOU HAVE USED YOUR TWO ABSENCES AND TWO MAKEUPS, YOU WILL BE DOCKED ONE-THIRD OF A GRADE FOR EVERY ABSENCE FOLLOWING.

Dance is different from many other fields in that a student’s work is not as quantifiable as it is in some other subjects, such as history or math. For this reason we do not have a point breakdown, but rather general guidelines.

To receive an “A” you must:
★ show signs of aptitude for dance technique, and musicality
★ have an energetic, attentive attitude
★ progress over the semester
★ be at the top level of the class
★ and, of course, fulfill the attendance, critique and exam requirements

You will receive an “F” if your absences and lack of critiques add up (or subtract) to an “F.”
Your grade will be lowered by one-third of a point for each critique you do not hand in (e.g., if you start with a B, your grade will drop to a B-, then C+ and you will receive a “C+”).

You may receive an “incomplete” (I) only if you have:
exceptional circumstances, which you have discussed with the instructor.
