

WRITE BETTER PAPERS
IMPROVE YOUR GRADES
ACE THE UDWPA

Enroll in UNC 270 Critical Writing II in spring 2006. We'll teach you how to write an effective paper driven by your carefully considered ideas. Small class size, substantial individual attention, and expert feedback pay back your investment. This course is intended for students who have passed ENEX 101 or its equivalent with a 'C' or better and are seeking to assess and refine their writing skills. Critical Writing II is worth two writing course credits and is appropriate for students in all academic disciplines.

What students are saying about Critical Writing II:

The feedback in this course was very good, and I got a lot of it.

I found the course extremely helpful in refreshing my writing skills. I took the WPA this year and passed it on the first try. This course is probably the biggest reason I won't be retaking the assessment.

Most importantly, this course has given me more confidence in my writing abilities. Thank you!
