Master of Arts in Education

PJW College of Education and Bitterroot College

Improving Educational Realities...

The core of the M.A. in Education program has courses in each of 4 key areas: Educational Research, Learning and Assessment, Critical Social Issues, and Diversity for 12 credits, a 3-credit thesis, and 15 credits of electives to select from a broad range of topics including: literacy, library, special education, early childhood, gifted education, and leadership.

And Changing Lives.

The M.A. in Education Program is affordable and flexible in nature, with options to take courses online, in-person, remote, and hybrid. The program can be completed in as little as 15 months, or extended to fit your needs. Our courses are taught by nationally renowned experts in the field of education with engaged and knowledgeable faculty mentors.

Learning Enriches Lives.

The University of Montana Bitterroot College (Hamilton) and the Phyllis J. Washington College of Education (Missoula) have partnered to bring the M.A. in Education program to both campuses. The Hamilton cohort and an initial course will begin in the spring of 2023. There will be a special registration and advising window for interested applicants.
