

The Montana Plaindealer (Mar. 1906 to Sep. 1911)

Helena, MT

March 16th, 1906

A Chinese doctor known by the name of Charlie Can, and a pioneer resident of Butte, was found murdered in his home recently. He was supposed to be wealthy and robbery is alleged as the motive for the crime. A Chinaman has been arrested, but as yet there is little evidence to connect him with the crime.

July 13th, 1906

Deputy Collector of Customs David Hoover, stationed at Gateway, an entry port from Canada, on the Montana boundary line, has been arrested on complaint of R.H. Taylor, a secret service man sent out from Washington to investigate charges of a conspiracy to smuggle Chinese unlawfully into this country.
