

Tobacco use among UM students has declined dramatically. Fall 2011, UM became a tobacco-free campus. The timing of the Tobacco Free UM policy implementation is noted in each graph.

Fewer UM students report using smokeless tobacco on both a daily and occasional use basis.

The NCHA survey was amended in 2015 to include questions regarding e-cigarette use. Use rates of e-cigarettes among UM students has doubled within the past two years.

