

Writing in the Disciplines Distributed Model Review Questions

What courses are included in the distributed model?

How are students taking courses in this model? Please clarify how students are advised into course to ensure they achieve the Writing in the Disciplines learning outcomes given the distribution of the outcomes in multiple courses.

What courses are included in the distributed model?	How many pages are assigned? List assignments for associated course.	Where does revision based on faculty feedback take place? List assignment for associated course.	Where does information literacy occur? List assignment for associated course.	What percentage of the grade is derived from writing? List grade percentages for each associated course.
Course 1
Course 2
Course 3
Course 4
TOTALS	Pages=			Percentage

Considerations for managing assessment

Are all faculty aware of the assessment plan and targets?

Are they collecting data for the assessment findings?

Who is the designated person or committee to collect and process the findings for all courses?