

UNIVERSITY SCHOLAR PATHWAY

Year 1

HONR 120: Introduction to Honors | 1 credit

First-year seminar taught by the dean to kick off your Honors experience. E-Portfolio* development begins here. Course is required for all first-year students.

Transfer students are exempt.

HONR 121L: Ways of Knowing | 3 credits

Seminar course exploring the human experience across millennia through the lenses of philosophy, science, religion, and literature. Satisfies two general education requirements: Literary & Artistic Studies and Intermediate College Writing.

Years 1-4

HONR 394: Interdisciplinary Colloquia | 3 credits

A series of interdisciplinary offerings that explore an array of topics from diverse perspectives, taught by top faculty.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING | 2+ credits

Options include field work, internships, supervised research, study abroad, and more.

HONORS ELECTIVES | 9 credits

Options include departmental honors offerings, general education honors courses, experiential learning, and honors special topic and interdisciplinary courses. The DHC offers over 50 classes each semester!

Years 3-4

CAPSTONE PROJECT | 3+ credits

Faculty mentor-supported, original research or creative scholarship in your academic area(s) of interest. Only one capstone required for each student. Must include a final artifact (end-product) and a formal, public presentation. Students may have their project published through the University's research database.

E-PORTFOLIO: Honors students will develop an electronic portfolio as part of their requirements to graduate with University Scholar Distinction. The portfolio will include artifacts that demonstrate important activities and learning outcomes from their Honors courses and experiences. Support for completing this project will begin in HONR 120 and continues with ongoing Honors advising.
