

CHECK IT OUT!

Join the IDS Club and study abroad in China
early Summer 2022

How do you join the IDS Club?

Club membership is limited to 10. The application deadline: rolling. A short interview will be scheduled upon reviewing the application.

Eligibility and Criteria:

- All UM students are eligible to apply. Preference shall be given to IDS students although all students who meet the eligibility requirements are encouraged to apply.
- Students who will not be in Missoula (e.g., on domestic or international exchange) in the fall or spring semester should not hesitate to apply.
- UM alumni and community friends are welcome.
- To be considered for selection, a participant must commit to enrolling in or auditing the spring course, joining the trip, and supplying their share of the required funds if these funds are not raised in their entirety through IDS Club fundraising.
- To be considered for selection, each applicant must sign a required commitment form that outlines the required hours each member of the 10-person team must commit to the fundraising process.
