NATURAL RESOURCE AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Learn, live and recreate in a place that brings natural resource issues to life. As a community of people who revere and rely on natural resources, Montana has long been an innovator in natural resource and environmental law. On a campus that the Princeton Review lists as one of the most environmentally responsible in the nation, study with professors and clinical supervisors who have practiced in the natural resources and environmental arena for years. They will help you master the intricacies of laws such as the Clean Water Act and Superfund in class and observe the effects of these laws through field visits.

AMERICAN INDIAN LAW

Take a prominent role in addressing legal issues relating to Indian people and Indian country at the only law school in a state with eight federally-recognized tribes. Delve into the complex and evolving principles of Indian law and unique relationships among tribal, state and federal governments. With substantive Indian law courses and an Indian Law Certificate Program, we also have the oldest in-house Indian Law Clinic in the nation, offer a progressive Summer Indian Law Program and support an active National American Law Students Association

SUMMER STUDY ABROAD IN CHINA

China has emerged as one of the world's most powerful economic forces in today's global economy. The demand is increasing for experts familiar with the ever-changing nature of the Chinese economy and with Chinese political and legal systems to provide advisory services to businesses and policy-makers. We recognize these needs and offer students the opportunity to experience China firsthand in our summer study abroad programs.

COMPETITION TEAMS

Dedicated coaches, quality students and unique curriculum have led Blewett School of Law competition teams to many successes. They are consistent contenders both regionally and nationally and have placed at international competitions as well. As one of the smallest law schools in the nation, we are proud of our teams' outstanding performance in interscholastic competitions. The University of Montana will host the International Negotiation Competition in
