Communication with the Professor
My approach is to be responsive and I will be available throughout the course to answer questions. I plan to respond to student inquiries whether email or text within 24 hours. If you do not hear from me, please try again and feel free to also notify Dr. Sara Rinfret at sara.rinfret@umontana.edu.

Course Description
This is an elective course for the University of Montana’s Master of Public Administration Program. This course will review Federal-Tribal history, law and policies providing a comprehensive overview and introduction to meet the following student learning objectives:

• Understand fundamentals of Federal-Tribal history.
• Understand the Constitutional principles most relevant to tribal governments.
• Understand and apply relevant provisions of federal statutes and regulations governing agency actions.
• Understand, analyze, and apply notable judicial decisions interpreting and establishing American Indian law.
• Demonstrate competence in finding and using sources of federal Indian law and related publications (includes basic legal research and analysis).
• Understand and apply the major substantive federal Indian law concepts, including sovereignty, jurisdiction Tribal-State relations, and natural resource issues and protections.
• Understand the essentials of International laws as applied to Tribal Nations
• Develop fluency in federal Indian law and policy terminology and concepts utilizing the textbook Roadmaps and Checkpoints for each chapter.

MPA Portfolio
If you are using any of the class assignments for your final MPA portfolio, it is your responsibility to keep track of individual grades and professor feedback. Use your computer’s “snipping tool” to capture graded feedback and save with your files. MPA Portfolio requirements can be found at https://www.umt.edu/law/mpa/portfolio.php

Required Text and Readings
1. Mastering American Indian Law, 2d edition, by Angelique Wambdi Eaglewoman and Stacey L. Leeds
   a. The website will provide required and recommended readings.
3. Other materials and instructions will be found in our Moodle course shell, organized by our weekly schedule.

Course Expectations
The following items provide explanations for course expectations.

Using Moodle:
This is an online course and each student is recommended to check our course site once per day. You may access Moodle at http://umonline.umt.edu/

Weekly Updates, Readings & Lectures:
Each week you will work on assigned readings from the required text and supplemental readings from the companion website, review weekly updates introducing material with PowerPoint lectures from the professor or guest speakers, and overview of any assignments due for the week. If not already posted, weekly updates and lectures will be published no later than Monday evening of each week – this is to provide timely information for the class.

Course Grading & Drafts:
Please allow for up to 7 full business days after the due date to receive a grade. All grades will be recorded via Moodle gradebook. Each assignment will use a rubric. If the rubric feedback is not enough, please let the professor know. Students can submit drafts of assignments via email to the professor before turning in any assignment this semester. However, please work with the UM Public Speaking and Writing Center at https://www.umt.edu/writingcenter/ before doing so. The professor will only read one draft per assignment. These must be emailed to the professor at least 72 hours in advance. Students can locate the gradebook by clicking on the tools icon at the top of the screen to find your list of grades.

Help with Technology:
Please make sure that your Internet browser settings meet the requirements to be Moodle compatible. Call UM Online by phone, (406) 243-4999 or email umonline-help@umontana.edu if technological problems arise. There is no on-call assistance during nights and weekends. For a total Moodle system failure, students will be sent an email by the University of Montana.

Guidelines for Written Work:
All written assignments should meet and use following criteria:
1. All work must be typed, double-spaced, utilize 12-point font, and have one inch margins.
2. Citations should follow proper style guidelines such as, MLA, Chicago, or APA – pick what works for you (in text citations and a reference page are necessary)
3. Assignments are due on the date/time listed in the course schedule; late assignments will not be accepted without prior approval.
4. All assignments must be turned in electronically via Microsoft Word. If the instructor cannot open the document, the student may not receive a grade. Submission of assignments via e-mail will not be accepted unless specific arrangements have been made.
5. Student collusion is not allowed for individual assignments and will be treated as an act of plagiarism.
Moodle. You can connect to Moodle here: http://umonline.umt.edu. If you have technical problems, call UM Online by phone, (406) 243-4999 or email umonline-help@umontana.edu. You should check the course site routinely for messages and updates.

Grading. All grades will be posted in Moodle. Below are the course assignments, points available, and the rounded weight attributed to each in calculating your final grade.

1. Discussion Forums – Five Questions for a combine 20% of final grade
2. Case brief: 20% of final grade
3. Paper: 30% of final grade
4. Tribal Government Synopsis: 30% of final grade.

The University of Montana uses the plus/minus grading system. To accommodate the plus/minus system the grading scale shown below will be used to reflect your final course grade.

University/Class Policies
Please be familiar with the following University or class policies:

Cultural Leave Policy: UM has a Cultural and Ceremonial Leave Policy: “Cultural or ceremonial leave allows excused absences for cultural, religious, and ceremonial purposes to meet the student’s customs and traditions or to participate in related activities. To receive an authorized absence for a cultural, religious or ceremonial event the student or their advisor (proxy) must submit a formal written request to the instructor. This must include a brief description (with inclusive dates) of the cultural event or ceremony and the importance of the student’s attendance or participation. Authorization for the absence is subject to approval by the instructor. Appeals may be made to the Chair, Dean or Provost. The excused absence or leave may not exceed five academic calendar days (not including weekends or holidays). Students remain responsible for completion or make-up of assignments as defined in the syllabus, at the discretion of the instructor.”

Disability Assistance: The University of Montana does not discriminate against qualified students with disabilities. If a student would like to discuss the availability of accommodations, or any other matter relating to their disability, please contact Disability Services for Students. We will work with you to provide an appropriate modification.

Incompletes or Withdrawals for the Course: If for some reason the course is not working out for you please adhere to the University’s policies for the last day to drop a class.

Late Assignments: Students are expected to submit all work by the date/time specified in the course calendar. Any exceptions to this must be approved by the instructor 72 hours before the date in question or be a clear emergency. Students must complete all assignments to receive a grade for the course.

University Attendance Policy: Students who are registered for a course but do not participate in the first two class forums/requirements may be required by the instructor to drop the course. This rule allows for early identification of class vacancies and to permit other students to add classes. Students must complete a drop form or drop the course in Cyber Bear to avoid receiving a failing grade. Students who know they will be absent, cannot participate or submit assignments should contact the instructor in advance.

Wikipedia: This online source is not reliable and should not be cited in any course assignment. The goal is to become accustomed to using scholarly sources for all work in any of your courses.

Academic Dishonesty (Plagiarism): Students must follow the University’s policies for academic conduct. The University’s Graduate School Plagiarism Warning states: Plagiarism is the appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and thoughts of another author and representing them as one's original work. It is a particularly intolerable offense in the academic community and is strictly forbidden. Students who plagiarize may fail the course and may be remanded to Academic Court for possible suspension or expulsion. Students must always be very careful to acknowledge any kind of borrowing that is included in their work. This means not only borrowed wording but also ideas. Acknowledgement of whatever is not one's own original work is the proper and honest use of sources. Failure to acknowledge whatever is not one's own original work is plagiarism. (UM Graduate School Degree Standard B6.000)

All work submitted must be your own; no duplicate work (work completed for another class) will be accepted. Acts of cheating or plagiarism will result in a grade of zero (0) for the assignment. Moreover, acts of plagiarism will also be reported to the Academic Court. To avoid acts of plagiarism, cite each reference or source you use and give proper credit for the ideas, opinions, and findings of others. When you are using the exact words of others, you must use quotation marks and include the page number where you found the quote in your citation.
