CANDIDATE SELECTION PROCESS

Step 1. Applications will be carefully read and evaluated by the Application Review Committee. All applicants will be notified via email regarding their selection status as soon as possible after spring term grades are received. This process includes waiting for grades to post for applicants attending University of Montana campuses or other colleges/universities. We have no control over when grades are posted, but we will do our best to contact you in a timely manner.

Please do not call or email us to check on your application status
– you will be apprised by email as soon as information is available.

Step 2. The top-ranked candidates will receive an invitation to interview for a day/time in early June. All other applicants will be notified of their status. All invited candidates are required to participate in the interview to maintain their consideration. Interview appointments will be scheduled once the Review Committee decides who will be interviewed.

Step 3. After interviews conclude, the Review Committee will make final selections about admission offers. All interviewees will be notified by email with either an offer or a non-acceptance notice. The Committee's decision is final. The Committee reserves the right to decline any nursing program applicant based on the application packet and interview process. The nursing program accepts 18 students each semester.

Nursing Application Form #4 – Fall 2026 Admission

Acknowledgment of Program Requirements

All nursing programs require a significant amount of time and effort. Students must be dedicated and organized to successfully meet the rigorous program requirements in nursing lecture, laboratory, and clinical experiences.

The Missoula College Nursing Faculty are committed to assisting you in succeeding. There is a working partnership between nursing students and their instructors for students to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to advance in the program and, ultimately, to become excellent and caring nurses. To achieve this, students must take responsibility for their own learning. This means, not only reading assigned material, but also contemplating it so that you are fully prepared to engage in class discussions and interactions.

Students must understand the expectations of the program:

- ▶ An expectation of a minimum of two hours of study per week for each credit enrolled. Most students spend more time than the minimal study expectation to be able to pass courses with a minimum B grade, and to fully comprehend the lecture material and gain the required skills.
- ▶ We understand the possible need to work to support yourself and/or a family. However, most students find it very difficult to work full-time or even part-time and still succeed in their classes. Additionally, clinical experiences are scheduled when facilities are available, and it is possible that changes can be made by them with short notice. Clinical hours may include long days, evenings, weekends, and night shifts. Students will be notified of their clinical schedule each semester.
- ▶ Students are required to attend all lecture, lab and clinical courses. Missed courses may result in failure of courses and dismissal from the nursing program. Please do not make vacation plans that would affect attendance in class or clinical. In most cases, absences cannot be made up due to the amount of material and skills covered in lectures and labs, and the limited availability of clinical experiences.
- ▶ Students will find that the amount of material covered, and the pace of the program require more time and effort than in their experience with prior undergraduate courses so nursing students may not achieve the grades they have received in non-nursing courses. In the nursing program, students basically learn a “new language” and are exposed to complex and comprehensive nursing concepts that may require more effort and class interaction to truly comprehend and absorb. The primary focus in the nursing program is learning, comprehension, and ability to apply the concepts and skills required to deliver safe and competent patient care.
- ▶ You are expected to be prepared for every class, lab, and clinical experience. Extensive reading, pre-clinical preparation, and other assignments are required.
- ▶ Most of the nursing program tests are modeled to be comparable to the nurse licensing exam. The tests are comprised of application, analysis, and synthesis type questions rather than simple knowledge and recall, therefore critical thinking is required to answer questions correctly.
- ▶ Students are provided with learning and test-taking strategies to nurture the critical thinking skills required to be successful in the program, on the RN licensure exam, and as a lifelong learner, as well as a competent and continually advancing nurse.

I certify that all the statements in my application document submissions are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I acknowledge that I have read and understood the above statements and if I am accepted into Missoula College’s ASN program, I agree to organize my time and personal commitments so that I can meet the demands and requirements necessary to succeed.
