

PAX: Good Behavior Game

READINESS CHECKLIST

NEED	YES	NO
Our school has identified a need for improving student self-regulation, delayed gratification and relationship building.
We have identified PAX GBG as an evidence-based practice that will address the needs of our school.
READINESS FOR CHANGE	YES	NO
Is now the right time to implement PAX (there are few other new programs being introduced to staff and PAX fits in with our on-going initiatives).
Our principal and district leadership actively support the implementation of PAX GBG.
80% of our staff agree to implementing PAX GBG
TIME, RESOURCES, PERSONNEL	YES	NO
Our school has identified PAX Partners and will provide time for them to support teachers in implementation.
Our school can provide regular staff meeting time dedicated to PAX GBG implementation.
Our school and/or district has allocated resources for implementing PAX GBG (could be through community grants and other funding but has sustainability plan)
ASSESSMENT	YES	NO
Our school will regularly assess the level of implementation and student outcomes to determine school needs for sustaining PAX GBG.

6-9

Number of Yes responses you have selected is 6-9 out of 9:

This is likely a good time within your organization to implement PAX GBG. As you begin the implementation process, continue to monitor whether the answers to these questions change and keep a close eye on any items to which you answered "no."

3-5

Number of Yes responses you have selected is 3-5 out of 9:

Your organization may not be ready on one-third to one-half of the factors. This reduces the likelihood of project success. Evaluate if this is an appropriate time to implement PAX GBG. Review the "Tips and Suggestions for Enhancing School Implementation of PAX GBG."

1-2

Number of Yes responses you have selected is 1-2 out of 9:

Based on your responses, significant work is likely needed to raise the readiness level of your organization. Implementing PAX GBG could create significant risk that it will not succeed or produce the desired results. Review the "Tips and Suggestions for Enhancing School Implementation of PAX GBG."
