Brian Balmages, conductor
Jennifer Drake is the founder of Idaho Viola Camp. She performs with the Boise Philharmonic and Boise Baroque orchestras. She is also the conductor of the Serenata Orchestra and the Boise Philharmonic Youth Orchestra. Jen also teaches over 40 private viola students, has an alto clef tattoo on her ankle and spends a large amount of time and energy thinking of pieces that would be fun to play in a viola ensemble. She was a featured performer at the 33rd International Viola Congress in Reykjavik, Iceland. In addition to all things viola, she also likes hike, hang out with her dogs Casey and Cameron, and spend time with her husband Chad Marvin. She credits her public school teachers back in Troy, Michigan for shaping her lifelong love of everything viola. Thanks, Roxanne Oliver, Connie Dugger and Alan MacNair! Jen also likes coffee. A lot.

Luis Millán
This season marks Dr. Luis Millán’s seventeenth year as Orchestra Director at The University of Montana. In addition to conducting the orchestra, Dr. Millán directs the Classical Guitar studio, and teach Music Theory courses. Dr. Millán also serves as Music Director of Butte Symphony Orchestra and Orchestra Director at Red Lodge Music Festival. Dr. Millán is also in demand as a guest conductor and clinician. Recent engagements include conducting All-State Orchestras in Oklahoma (2010) and Montana (2011), and AA Orchestra Festivals in Bozeman (2016), Billings (2015) and Missoula (2014). Before arriving in Montana, Dr. Millán directed the Orchestra Program at Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas; conducted youth orchestras in Topeka, Kansas, and Jackson and Saginaw, Michigan; served as Music Director of OPERA ONE and Opera Company of Mid-Michigan; and taught at Michigan State University’s Community Music School and Flint Institute of Music. Dr. Millán holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from St. Olaf College, (1991) and Master of Music and Doctorate of Musical Arts degrees in Orchestral Conducting from Michigan State University (1993, 1997).

James Smart is the Director of Bands and Trumpet at the University of Montana where he conducts the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, teaches applied trumpet, undergraduate and graduate conducting, and music education courses. Under his direction, the Symphonic Wind Ensemble has twice been selected to perform at the joint Western/Northwestern Region College Band Directors National Association Conference and also at the NAFME All-Northwest Conference. Dr. Smart is also the creator of the annual Fusion Concert where over 25 acts showcase the diversity of the UM School of Music and the UM All-Star Ensembles Festival that hosts over 200 select high school musicians from throughout the Northwest and Canada. He has been invited as conductor, presenter, and clinician in Austria, Canada, China, Nigeria and across the United States. Dr. Smart received his degrees in trumpet performance, music education, and conducting from the University of Michigan and Arizona State.

Brian Balmages is a leading film, orchestra, and band composer. His commissions and premieres have been performed by the Baltimore Symphony, Miami Symphony Orchestra, the University of Miami Florida Wind Ensembles, and many other professional and educational organizations. Brian maintains an active schedule as a clinician and conductor for honor bands throughout the United States including the Midwest Clinic, Florida Bandmasters Association, and the Mid-Atlantic Wind Conductor’s Conference. He holds a bachelor’s degree from James Madison University and a master’s degree from the University of Miami Florida. A prolific trumpet player, Brian also performs with the Miami Symphony Orchestra and the Skyline Brass. A popular and heavily sought after composer, Brian Balmages is currently Instrumental Editor in Chief with the FJH Music Company. His published works are heard around the world in film and live performances.
