SPRING COMMENCEMENT

SATURDAY, MAY 14, 2022
ADAMS CENTER

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear UM Graduates,

Today we join together to celebrate you – the University of Montana Class of 2022.

Achieving an undergraduate or graduate degree is always an impressive feat; persevering to graduate despite the many disruptions that COVID-19 introduced, however, is remarkable. All of us here today are proud of you, and honored to participate in this culmination of your many years of hard work and determination.

Thank you for all you have contributed to our campus community during your time here. Each of you uniquely impacted UM and will forever be an important part of our institution's history.

Know that your tenure at UM need not come to an end once you receive your degree; today marks your transition from UM students to alumni of this great institution.

We look forward to seeing all that you will accomplish. No matter where the road ahead may take you, know that your UM Family is cheering for you.

Congratulations on a job well done. Go Griz!

Seth Bodnar, President

2022 MORNING CEREMONY

DENNIS K. ECK, '67 HONORARY DEGREE OF BUSINESS RECIPIENT AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

A native of Wolf Point, Dennis Eck grew up on the Fort Peck Indian Reservation and in other Montana cities. After graduation from Butte High, he attended the University of Montana, where he earned a degree in history and political science.

When asked about his career, Dennis describes it as follows: "I graduated from college and pursued a series of opportunities – all of which focused on fixing things that were broken. Over the course of my career, I worked with twelve different divisions or companies, starting at one and fixing it before moving to the next. A company was fixed when it worked best for its employees, its communities, and its suppliers. To show my commitment, when possible, I worked for stock."

Throughout Dennis' groundbreaking career, he served as the Vice Chairman and the Executive Vice President of American Stores, CEO for American Food and Drug, and President and COO of The Vons Companies. He then joined Coles Myer (CML), Australia's largest retailer. During his tenure as CEO at CML, the company developed the Coles Institute, a private university tied to Deakin University in Melbourne, Australia. CML also developed a community outreach program for high school dropouts in Australia which achieved dramatic success in re-engaging former high school dropouts in finishing high school. Many of these graduates moved on to Coles Institute, and all used their education to improve their employment opportunities.

In 2001, Dennis was named Australia's Most Astute Business Leader, an honor selected by the Australia-wide Association of Chartered Accountants and awarded by the Prime Minister.

Upon return from Australia, Dennis functioned as a Non-Executive Chairman of the Board and temporary Chief Executive Officer of Ulta Salon Cosmetics & Fragrance. Since 2001, he has served as a principal with DKE Retail Studies which focused on venture capital opportunities.

A sampling of Dennis' many technology accomplishments include development of emerging technologies related to e-commerce, EFT-POS, and web-based training tools. He was in the first group building interactive programs using electronic data demographics, psychographic and actual behavior. CML developed the first working model of a virtual computer store accessing multiple brands.

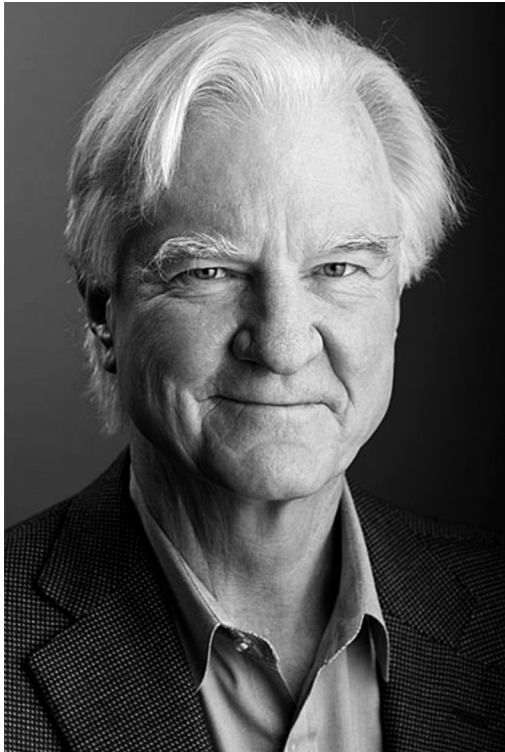

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Dennis served as a Trustee of the University of Montana Foundation and Chairman of the Alfred Hospital Foundation.

Dennis has long been an advocate of women's access to healthcare and for women in business and politics. His philanthropy relates to these causes. Dennis and his wife, Gretchen, addressed the reluctance of 15%-20% of female oncology patients to pursue chemotherapy treatment due to hair and skin damage by stepping forward to fund multiple years of testing on a cooling cap designed to prevent hair loss. Dr. Andreea Nanci, Head of Hematology at University of California-Irvine, developed the program which helped more than 75% of included patients.

Dennis and Gretchen Eck have also contributed significantly to the University of Montana, primarily for renovation of Eck Hall, to launch the S.E.A. Change Initiative for UM students, and to establish the Dennis and Gretchen Eck Native American Scholarship Fund.

2022 AFTERNOON CEREMONY

JIM SCOTT

HONORARY DEGREE OF HUMANE LETTERS RECIPIENT AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Jim Scott was born in 1949 in Sheridan, WY, the youngest of five siblings. He grew up in Sheridan, and spent the summers near Dayton, WY on the Padlock Ranch. After attending the University of Denver and the University of Wyoming he and his wife, Chris, moved to Colstrip, MT in 1976 where Jim began his 40 plus year career as a community banker with First Interstate Bank and a life filled with community engagement.

Over the course of the last 54 years, working together with his family and outstanding people through shared values, they successfully grew First Interstate Bank to be one of the largest community focused banks in the western United States. Jim has been active at the University of Montana, serving on the College of Business's Advisory Board and the UM Foundation Board. He was on the O'Connor Center for the Rocky Mountain West's Advisory Board and a supporter of UM's Flathead Lake Biological Station, currently serving on its Advisory Board.

In the 90's, Jim became heavily involved in philanthropy — founding the First Interstate Foundation and chairing the Homer and Mildred Scott Foundation upon the death of his father. He chaired the Board of the Northwest Area Foundation in St. Paul, MN and was an early board member of the Montana Community Foundation.

It was on the board of the Montana Community Foundation that Jim met and became close friends with Elouise Cobell, a passionate advocate for financial justice for Native Americans. Jim was greatly influenced by growing up on and near the Crow Indian Reservation. "I have had the gift of meeting some amazing Native people and families. I am deeply moved by their ancestor's stories before and during the development of our country, by their economic and cultural reality today and their commitment to achieve a more just future."

The Foundation that Jim and Chris began in the 90's, called the Foundation for Community Vitality, has been the primary vehicle for supporting leaders and communities on the Crow, Northern Cheyenne and Blackfeet Reservations to promote economic opportunity, social capital, and environmental health. Their daughter, Courtney Scott, now leads the Foundation's programming. In 2021, Jim was the recipient of the Governor's Humanities Award. "Congratulations to all of the 2022 graduates. Continue to strive to do your very best. The future needs you! I am truly grateful to be honored by the University of Montana."
