

The Role of Leadership in Forest Conservation, Restoration, and Collaboration

The Inland Empire and the Montana Society of American Foresters
UM College of Forestry - Lubrecht Forest, Greenough, Montana
March 4th & 5th, 2011

Friday, March 4th, 2011

- 12:30-1:00 Registration
- 1:00-1:30 Welcome to Lubrecht Forest – Frank Maas (invited)
- 1:30-2:30 The 2010 Forest Jobs and Recreation Act – Lessons Learned
- Tracy Stone-Manning, Staff, US Senator John Tester
- 2:30-3:00 Collaborative Forest Landscape Restoration Program
- Julia Altemus, CFLRP Advisory Committee
- 3:00-3:30 Break
- 3:30-5:00 CFLRP Project Summaries and Lessons Learned
- Dale Harris, Great Burn Study Group – “Selway-Middle Fork Clearwater CFLRP Project”
 - Debbie Austin, Lolo National Forest – “SW Crown of the Continent CFLRP Project”
 - Lloyd McGee, Vaagen Brothers Lumber – “Tapash Collaborative CFLRP Project” & Colville NF Project proposal
- 5:00-6:00 Social Hour
- 6:00-7:30 Dinner
- 7:30 – 9:00 Group Discussion: Forest Collaboration in Montana and Idaho – Is it Living up to the Promise?
- Jay O’Laughlin, University of Idaho
 - Brian Kahn, Artemis Common Ground

Saturday, March 5th, 2011

- 7:00-8:00 Breakfast
- 8:00-8:30 IESAF and MTSAF Annual Meetings: Preview
- 8:30-9:00 2011 International Year of the Forest: Events & Opportunities – Paula Short
- 9:00 – 9:30 Leadership Actions at the National Level – Chuck Lorenz & Jay O’Laughlin
- 9:30-10:00 Attracting Student Members to Full-Time Membership in SAF
Student Chapter Representatives (WSU, U of I, U of M and SCC) –
- 10:00-10:30 Strategies to Retain Active Members in SAF – Bob Harrington/Lloyd Magee
- 10:30-12:00 Open Discussion
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-3:00 Individual Planning Meetings by IESAF and MTSAF and Wrap-up