AMERICAN VALUES: AMERICAN WILDERNESS DVD

Arthur Carhart National Wilderness Training Center in association with High Plains Films Presents: AMERICAN VALUES-AMERICAN WILDERNESS, with Christopher Reeves. In AMERICAN VALUES: AMERICAN WILDERNESS, a diverse group of Americans, including a teen-age daughter of Cambodian refugees, a children's book author, a cancer survivor, a Native American tribal chairman, inner city kids, and the late Christopher Reeve, among others, share their values for wilderness. Their experiences and hopes are interspersed with inspiring Photography of the beautiful wild lands that have captured their hearts. A labor of love for Christopher Reeve, the actor donated his time and energy to this film – one of his last on-screen appearances before his death in October 2004. (Back to Order Form)
