In order to be eligible to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program you must meet the eligibility requirements set forth by the VA. If you do not meet all of these requirements, then you will not be eligible to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program. There are no exceptions.

The Yellow Ribbon Program allows for a limited number of participants and operates on a first come, first serve basis. For The University of Montana (UM), after your initial application is approved, you remain continuously enrolled in your program, adhere to the program requirements, and UM continues to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program, you will receive benefits.

If you cease to maintain continuous enrollment, even for one semester, you will be required to reapply for the Yellow Ribbon Program and there is no guarantee that you will be eligible to participate. Continuous enrollment is equivalent to attending consecutive Fall and Spring semesters starting with the semester of your entry into the program.

Program Requirements

- Students must maintain satisfactory progress according to UM standards in his/her respective degree program and remain in academic good standing.
- Students must attend all scheduled classes. Class failure due to non-attendance will result in removal from the program.
- Students must adhere to all UM policies and procedures. Failure to do so will result in removal from the program.
- Students must be completely separated from Active Duty Service prior to the first day of the semester (terminal leave does not count as separation).

By signing below I certify that I have read and understand all the terms and conditions laid forth within this application for the Yellow Ribbon Program. I also understand this is a binding agreement.
